

Professional Profile

Cameron Jacques
Vice President

Career Summary

Cameron Jacques has built a career on a client-centric perspective providing multi-family owners and investors with a level of trust and integrity that is unmatched in the real estate industry today.

Mr. Jacques has acquired a broad range of experience in retail and industrial single tenant NNN buildings. However, his expertise lies in the disposition and acquisition of multi-family investments in his hometown of Long Beach.

Through the diligent representation of his clients, Mr. Jacques built a reputation for setting new highs in the multi-family arena. His appraisal and financial valuation experience has provided Mr. Jacques with the ability to assist his clients in maximizing the value of their investment properties to achieve the highest return. As a resident and investor in Long Beach himself, Mr. Jacques has the belief that his city, and those surrounding, are moving forward and upward and has the aptitude to guide his clients to make the most of that. He is aggressive, energized, takes great pride in his work, and holds the highest level of ethics and standards.

As a young man from Australia, Mr. Jacques traveled the world on the pro tennis tour which further led to a successful coaching career in Europe, eventually settling in Los Angeles in 1996. In 2005, Mr. Jacques then shifted his concentration and embarked on his career of real estate.
