

Professional Profile

Austin Carr

Career Summary

Austin Carr specializes exclusively in the disposition, acquisition, and exchange of multifamily investment properties in the greater Long Beach, California area. With over three years of industry experience, Austin has established himself as one of the leading multifamily investment property expert in Long Beach with private buyers, sellers and asset managers alike. After finishing top of his class in the Coldwell Banker Commercial training program, his high level of success is due to his extensive market knowledge; aggressive pricing and marketing strategies, unrivaled work ethic, and dedication to helping clients achieve their investment objectives. Carr approaches his real estate business from a client-centric perspective, choosing to focus his efforts on building long-term relationships with his clients rather than utilizing the traditional transaction-oriented business model. He is committed to the highest level of client service and ethical standards and ensuring that his clients receive the highest price the market will allow for their properties. His team was ranked amongst the top Long Beach Multifamily broker in 2015, 2016, and 2017.

Austin has created an exclusive database of southern California multifamily owners, by working with services such as Realist, Loopnet, MLS, and CoStar. While utilizing his analytical abilities to track market conditions and advise his clientele with up-to-date information, Austin is able to customize each transaction for each client.
